MELISSA SCHAUB

Head Coach
Third season

Melissa Schaub is in her third season as the head coach of the Ohio State women's tennis team after spending 2012-13 as the interim head coach. Schaub, a Lexington, Ohio, native who had a standout collegiate career at Tennessee, was on the coaching staff at Middle Tennessee State for five seasons, including one as head coach (2010-11), prior to joining the Ohio State staff as an assistant coach in 2011-12.

In the 2013-14 season, Schaub led the Buckeyes to a 19-9 record, one win shy of the program record (20), en route to a third-place finish in the B1G and the squad's first NCAA tournament appearance since 2010. At the helm as interim head coach, she guided the Buckeyes to 10 wins in dual matches, including Big Ten conference victories vs. Penn State, Minnesota and Iowa. The squad, which ranked as high as No. 41 in the ITA poll, notched four shutouts on the year and a pair of victories against top 50 opponents.

Schaub played four years for the Tennessee Volunteers (2003-06), where she was ranked as high as No. 2 nationally in doubles and the squad reached the No. 4 spot in the national polls during her career.

She was an All-American and second team All-SEC selection as a freshman, finishing the year ranked sixth nationally. Although struggling with injuries as a sophomore and junior, she posted 25 dual-match doubles wins. As a senior, Schaub played at Nos. 2 and 3 singles before moving into the No. 1 position in early April where she went 3-0 in the SEC tournament. She was ranked nationally in doubles as a senior with partner Vilmarie Castellvi and ended her career with 70 doubles wins to rank in the Top 10 in program history.

Schaub was a member of the SEC Good Works Team and SEC Academic Honor Roll and was the recipient of the athletics department's "No Guts, No Glory" award as a senior. She graduated with a degree in psychology in 2006.

Schaub was a two-sport athlete at Lexington High School, playing both tennis and basketball. She won the Ohio state singles title as a senior in 2001 when she led her squad to a third-place finish at the state tournament. She was a part of four conference and district championship squads during her career.

Schaub's brother, Ty, played for the Ohio State men's tennis team and served as a captain as a senior when the Buckeyes were the NCAA runner-up. He is currently the interim assistant coach at Iowa. Her sister, Courtney, was on the tennis team at Cumberland University from 2008-12.

ADAM COHEN

Assistant Coach
First season

Adam Cohen joined the Ohio State women's tennis team as an assistant coach in September 2014. Cohen led the Binghamton men's tennis team to seven-consecutive America East conference titles in eight years with the program prior to coming to Columbus.

In 2014, the five-time America East Coach of the Year guided his squad to a 16-11 record with a 5-0 ledger vs. conference opponents and helped coach Binghamton's sophomore standout to repeat accolades as America East Player of the Year. In 2012-13, Cohen was honored as the ITA Northeast Region Coach of the Year after leading the Bearcats to their ninth NCAA appearance in 11 years. His players were successful in the classroom and the program had 34 ITA Scholar-Athletes in the last five years combined, including eight in 2014.

A standout for the Golden Gophers, Cohen played his final two collegiate seasons at Minnesota, leading the program to back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1994 and 1995. He began his collegiate career at Southern Illinois - Edwardsville, where he helped the team finish seventh at the 1993 NCAA Division II Championship.

After serving as an assistant at University of Louisiana-Lafayette (1997-98), where he helped guide the squad to a Sun Belt Conference title and NCAA bid, Cohen joined the coaching staff at his alma mater, Minnesota, and the Golden Gophers made seven NCAA tournament appearances in eight years, including a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2000. Cohen, who also spent time as the director of tennis at the North Oaks Tennis Program, joined the Binghamton men's tennis team as head coach for the 2007-08 season.

SARAH TAYLOR
Volunteer Assistant Coach
First season

Former professional tennis player Sarah Taylor joined the Ohio State women's tennis staff for the 2014-15 campaign. Taylor spent six years playing on the WTA Tour and was ranked as high as No. 68 in the world.

In her pro career, which spanned from 1999-2005, Taylor played in four U.S. Opens and the Australian Open three times, as well as appearances at Wimbledon and the French Open. She earned a silver medal at the 2003 Pan American Games and was the winner of seven USTA/ITF pro circuit singles events. She reached the semifinals of WTA tour events in Bali and Tokyo, defeating former No. 1 Arantxa Sanchez Vacario. In 2003, she advanced to the fourth round of the NASDAQ-100 Open, defeating two Top 20 players. Taylor was a member of the U.S. National Team from 2001-04.

Taylor began her coaching career as the volunteer coach at Harvard in August 2004, spending a season with the Crimson. She was a tennis coach for two years at Hollow Rock Racquet Club in Durham N.C., before serving as a USTA Coach in Boca Raton, Florida. With the USTA, she coached, mentored and oversaw the development of top female prospects 18 and under and captained all 18 and under national team events, including the Junior Fed Cup.

Taylor earned her bachelor's degree in psychology and philosophy from North Carolina in 2009 and has a master of science degree in experimental social psychology from Ohio University, where she is a doctoral candidate. She is an instructor and graduate assistant at OU in the experimental social psychology program.

CARRIE SMITH
Director of Tennis Operations
Eight season

Carrie Smith enters her eighth year as the director of operations for the women's tennis team and her third season in this role for both the men's and women's squads. Smith serves a multitude of roles for the team, from organizing travel arrangements to overseeing alumni, community service and fundraiser programs. She also facilitates summer tournaments and camps for Ohio State, including the Campus Showdown and summer ITA competitions.

Tennis has been a lifelong passion for Smith, and she is currently a member of four adult teams at the Olympic Tennis Club and Racquet Club. She is also a USPTA certified teaching pro.

Smith is from South Bend, Ind., and graduated from Butler University. She has two sons, Nicholas and Andrew.

*1995: single elimination play in championship on day one, double elimination for remaining matches

1996-98: began use of single elimination format for Conference championship; team champion declared Conference champion

1999-05: regular season winner declared "Big Ten Women's Tennis Regular Season Champion" and championship used to determine "Big Ten Conference Champion" and NCAA automatic qualifier; in final team standings, championship winner placed first and championship runner-up placed second (regardless of record); final conference record determined by following formula -- regular-season record plus any upsets in championship. If a lower seed upsets a higher seed, the lower seed will gain a win while the higher seed will incur a loss. However, a win over a team with an identical record will not count as an upset regardless of seeding.

2006-08: Final team standings to include only results from regular season Big Ten matches

2009-present: regular season winner declared "Big Ten Champion" and tournament used to determine "Big Ten Tournament Champion" and NCAA automatic qualifier.

2013-14 YEAR IN REVIEW

- Ohio State returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2010, earning an at-large berth into the 64-team draw. It was the 11th appearance in the national tournament for the program and the first under second-year head coach Melissa Schaub.
- The Buckeyes finished third in the Big Ten with an 8-3 ledger in Big Ten play. It was the most wins for the squad in league action since 2006, when the Big Ten began using just regular-season matches for final B1G records. It was the highest finish in the B1G since the team tied for third in 2011.
- The squad's 19 wins in 2014 were one shy of the program record 20 set in 2010. The team's 11 shutout victories set the program record, breaking the mark of 10 the 2010 recorded.
- The Buckeyes were a perfect 12-0 at home during 2014. The team last posted 12 or more consecutive wins at home in 2002, when the squad captured a program-record 14-straight matches at home.
- Gabriella De Santis was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year, the second Buckeye to earn the award from the B1G and the first since Kristy Dascoli in 1998. De Santis became the first Buckeye to receive the ITA's Midwest Rookie Player of the Year honor.
- De Santis, a unanimous selection, was joined on the All-Big Ten First Team by classmate Miho Kowase, while freshman Sandy Niehaus was a second team pick. De Santis and Kowase were the first Buckeyes named to the all-conference first team since 2010, while Niehaus was the first second team selection since 2011.
- De Santis was 9-1 in B1G play, while Niehaus was 9-2. The duo of De Santis and Niehaus was a perfect 7-0 in B1G matches in doubles, while the tandem of Miho Kowase and Ferny Angeles Paz was also 7-0 in league matches. Niehaus and De Santis had a team-high 19 doubles wins on the year, going 15-1 in dual matches, and ended the year on a 14-match winning streak.
- Niehaus led the team with 32 singles victories overall (losing just six matches), ranking second in program history for wins in a single season and by a freshman (Cami Hubbs, 36 in 2008). In dual matches, Niehaus, who won her last eight matches, had a team-best 22 victories.
